

QUEER THE VOTE 2020

Colorado

NATIONAL LGBTQ
TASK FORCE

Registration Deadlines	Primary Election	General Election
8 days prior to the election by mail or online; same-day registration in person	March 3, 2020	November 3, 2020
Colorado currently operates all elections by mail. All registered voters are automatically mailed paper ballots, which they can fill out and mail back, drop off at an election center, or use to vote in person.
Colorado operates a semi-closed primary, meaning that voters who have registered as a member of a political party can only vote in that party's primary, but unaffiliated voters can choose the primary they wish to participate in.
National Elections <ul style="list-style-type: none">• President• Senate Seat: Cory Gardner• 7 House seats	State Elections <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Seats in the State Senate and House of Representatives• 2 seats on the State Supreme Court• 1 Seat on the State Intermediate Court• A ballot initiative to award Colorado's Electoral College votes to the winner of the popular vote

Voting Eligibility

To register to vote in Colorado, an individual must be a U.S. citizen and a resident of Colorado who will be at least 18 years old on the next election date. Additionally, an individual must not be currently serving a term of imprisonment. Any 16 year old who meets all other qualifications can pre-register to vote, and 17 year-olds are permitted to vote in primary elections if they will turn 18 by the general election.

Voter Registration

Any individual who has a Colorado driver's license or state ID issued by the Colorado Department of Revenue can register to vote at www.govotecolorado.com. You can also register to vote by mail, fax, or email with a paper form, which can be found at the county clerk and recorder's office, any federal post office, or printed from the Secretary of State's website. Additionally, you can register to vote in person at the Colorado Department of Motor Vehicles, any office that provides state-funded public assistance, military recruitment offices, or a voter service and polling center.

Voter Identification

Any voter who is voting at the polls must provide identification. Anyone who is voting by mail for the first time may also need to provide a photocopy of their ID. Acceptable forms of ID must list your Colorado address and include:

- Valid Colorado driver's license or valid ID card
- U.S. passport, military ID (with photo), or veteran ID card from the Department of Veterans Affairs
- Employee ID card (with photo) issued by the U.S. government, Colorado government, or any political subdivision of Colorado (county, municipality, etc.)
- Copy of a utility bill, bank statement, government check or document, or paycheck from within 60 days of the election
- Medicare or Medicaid card
- Student ID card (with photo) issued by an institute of higher education in Colorado
- A valid tribal ID card

If you encounter any issues when voting, call the Election Protection Hotline at 1-866-OUR-VOTE.

Si tiene problemas al votar, contacte la línea directa para la protección del votante al 1-888-VE-Y-VOTA.